

Sunbury Trial 12th October 2019

Another great day of fantastic weather and fabulous people and dog work. This year brought us less numbers of runs than other years, creating a few challenges with finals and placings, but also allowing us our first early (on time) finish in four years. Thank you so much to all our competitors for competing at our humble event and giving a hand to pack up at the end; extremely appreciated.

Many thanks to our wonderful sponsors, McMahon's Sungold Dairy; Tony McMahon and Stewart especially. Ewe, Me & The Dog - Working Dog Training and Pergolas Plus. Denis Connors of Nullavale for the excellent sheep (yet again) and Cory from Hearn's Transport for cartage. To the Sunbury Show for having us and letting us exhibit our sport to the people of Sunbury, Victoria. We had a great showing of interest over the course of the day and people were keen to find out more and watch our fabulous dogs do what they love. Thank you to our great judges, Rob Hart, Kayne Gardner and Shane Beaugelhall; for both you're judging and sharing you're experience with the competitors. Thank you to the fabulous team of people, that I also get to call friends, for the set up, sheep minding, let out and pack up, you all rock! Thank you to Stephen and Lynda Cody for photographing the day. See you next year!
